

>> Internal Door Frames.

These frames are made entirely in painted aluminium. They are supplied in customised dimensions complete with marine neoprene sealing gaskets and stainless steel hinges.

The door can be pre-assembled on the frame before installation on the bulkhead of motor boats and yachts.

All the intricate work is carried out off board, allowing considerable time savings.

